Specialness, hyperbolicity and h-principle

Jörg Winkelmann

We investigate relations between the algebraic-geometric notion of specialness introduced by Campana and the notions related to the h-principle of Gromov and discuss in particular to which extent specialness and "ellipticity" (validity of h-principle) are equivalent for projective complex manifolds.